Greeting Program :-

Definition :-

This Program demonstrates a Simple function call in jaa. It defines a function greeting that prints a greeting message to the Console. the greeting function is called from the main method. to display the message when the Program is run.

Algorithm :-

1. Start

2. Define a method greeting that prints a greeting message

3. Call the greeting method from the main method.

4. End.

Key Points to Note :

Function Definition: the greeting method is defined to print a greeting message.

Function call :- the greeting method is called from the main method to execute the print Statement.